JOCKEY SHEA SERIOUSLY INJURED IN DELMAR RACE

Harplithe Falls With Promising . Young Rider, and Jockeys Bridwell and Johnny Mc-Kinnie Are Also Hurt.

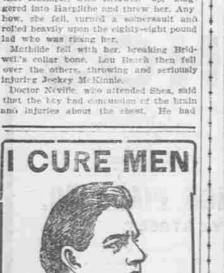

Jockey Willie Shea was seriously, if not , fatally injured by an accident in the first race at Delmar track yesterday,

He was riding Harpliths, owned by J. K. Hughes, a well-backed good thing, in the first race. Off in front at the start he took the filly back to fourth place. At the stretch head the three lead ra swung to save ground. Many close observers who saw the accident said that he took the filly too close to the rail and that she hit an upright post with her foot. Others said that Mathilde, with Bridwell up, staggered into Harplithe and threw her. Any how, she fell, turned a somersault and rolled heavily upon the eighty-eight pound lad who was riving her.

WILLIE SHEA,

Jockey who was seriously injured in race at Delmar, in which two other riders were hurt, yesterday. not recovered consciousness at a late hour last night.

SHEA IS AN ORPHAN.

Shea is 14 years o'd and an orphan, and a native of New Orleans. His father, who was the foster father of William Jordan, a well-known bookmaker's clerk of New Orleans, gave the lad to Jordan's guardlanship when he died, two years ago, The elder Shen had reared Jordan, and Jordan was rearing his benefactor's boy. in temporary charge of Billy Newman, trainer of Tony Lepping and Doctor trainer of Tony Lepping and Doctor Scharff at St. Louis.

Shea had just commenced to give great promise as a lockey. In the last month his riding was exceptionally good. He seemed to be the most promising young rider in the West. He is a very well-mannered niledy-bred boy, quiet politic and with great depth of feeling.

TO PRACTICE RELIGION.

A pathetic incident is connected with the boy's bad luck. A Catholic by profession, he had not been to church or performed his minufatory duries of his religion for some time. He went to Billy Newman yesterday and said. "Mr. Billy, you must let me off to-night. I want to go to confession. I have not been there for a war."

Mr. Newman commended the boy's purpose and asked him where he meant to go to confession. The boy said he wanted to go to Father Gilfilian of the New Cathedral Parish.

to go to Father Gliffilian of the New Cathedral Parish.

When Judge Brady heard this story after the accident yesterday, he went ito Mrs. Brady, who was attending the races and asked her to go for Father Gliffilian and bring him to the unconscious lad. Mrs. Brady found the priest and the little jockey received the rites of his church as he lay in the Baptist sanitarium.

The accident is the most serious one that has happened at a local track in years. Many boys have fallen, but none have been seriously injured since Donegan fell at the Fair Grounds in 192. Like Shea, he had a concussion of the brain and the entire top of his skull had to be removed. He now wears a silver plate covering his brain.

Little Shea's winsome wave, good rid-ing, bandsome face and pleasant man-ners made him a very general favorite with race goers. The accident cast a gloom over the proceedings of the day.

EVEA G.'S BRIGHT RACE. The ruces were very well run. Caelana, a 19-to-1 shot, The Republic's usual longpriced special, won the first race all the way with Jockey Jost up, and broke that ad's "maiden," that is, won his first

The second event went to Sadie Burch, a Hayes cast-off, who opened at is and went to its. She bent a Hayes crack, Firsdley Hill, who opened at iss and was backed to it. She bent a Hayes crack, Firsdley Hill, who opened at its and was backed to it. Rusk, the li-to-5 favorite, reach a fact and was last. Frank Collins, second choice, got off bady and ran a bad race.

The third race went to the 5-to-5 favorite. Vestry, who was lucky to beat Miss Mannets, whom Birkenruth rode very lily. Even G. at 4 to 5, won the stake in a gallop. Pourquot Fas took her the first charter, then fell away, beaten. Lady Sirnthmore, in blinkers, tock her the second quarter and then stopped. Leenja took a crack at healn the stretch and had to let so. Even took them in turns and made them lie down.

ADA N. IN A GALLOP.

Ada N. won the fifth race in a gallop, even furlongs in 1:3%. Yellow Tall was icht at the post, ran round his field to a goed position at the stretch entry and was then eased up. Elastic, a 3-to-1 shot, rould not get up a common gallop. R. King, who rode Yellow Tail, was suspended for lack of diligence while at the post. There was a bad start in the last race. Transum get away in front, but Dynnaty soon got to him, followed him for a half, then went on and worn as she picased. Kunja, off hadly, worked a rough passease and got up in time to be second. She could scarce have beaten Dynasty anyhow. left at the post, ran round his field to a Mason and Benuenire Meet. win the fourth race at Delmar to-day. The 3-year-olds cannot give him the weight. He would have been close to or in front of Dan McKenna last time had not Monsleur Beaucaire cut across him in the stretch. With a nice boy like Howell up-no Lou-dens or Austins-he can win.

It is a bit far for First Meson, and the weight will not suit him. Dan McKenna is clearly the contender. He likes a distance, improves all the time and is deadly game. Monsieur Beaucaire will give a good account of himself if he is well ridden and saved for the stretch. It will be the best race run at Delmar this season.
